

Last night at education village Mr Duffy hosted a bingo and quiz night to raise money for a charity called Breathtakers. We RAISED almost £200 selling raffle tickets and tickets for the event. The Education Village have pledged to make it up to £200. A student from the education village, Adam Cameron, says “I thought it was a good night it was good idea to raise some money. We raised a lot of money just from that night”

Lydia Denham, year 7 agrees, “I thought the night went extremely well. We raised a lot of money and awareness of Breathtakers charity. It was a great idea and we had a really great night”

There was about 30 or more people supporting the event.

By Adam Cameron and Lydia Denham